P.3 Line 6. Word left out at the end of the line. It should read "from New York to Saint John"

P.9 Line 6. Very few of these German immigrants settled near Newburg. Most of them were first settled on the Hudson fifty miles north of Newburg.

Petition for Roads

A photocopy of a petition to have roads laid out appears on the opposite page. The number 55 which appears at the top right hand corner did not occur on the original. The original was also somewhat longer and contained two more signatures which appear to be John King and Nathan Masson.

Introduction The object of this booklet is to trace all the descendants of John Gunter (1793-1876) in both the male and female lines. A brief account of his ancestry is also given along with that of his wife, Nancy Ann Currey. I shall not give detailed information on their ancestors except for John's father, Andrew Gunter and his grandfather, Conrad Gunter.

I am not a descendant of John Gunter but I am a great-grandson of John's youngest brother, Andrew. By coincidence I am also the great-great-grandson of Nancy Ann's brother, Joshua Currey.

Several years ago my father, Fred Gunter of Fredericton, and I started to look for the location of Conrad Gunter's grave. In 1938 Mrs. Ethel Chubbuck of Berkeley, California had written to my grandfather, Charles Gunter of Queensbury, asking for information on the family of his mother, Harriet Jane Morrell. Because my grandfather had died in 1936 my father answered her letter. At that time he and his sister, Mrs. Nora Anderson of Andover visited several Gunter's in Jemseg in order to obtain some family history. At that time John Gunter stated that Conrad was buried in Lower Jemseg in a cemetery near the shore. I have yet to locate Conrad's grave but my interest was aroused.

We have a old family chart which shows the children and grandchildren of Andrew Gunter. It was made in Gagetown in 1834. (Only the names of the grandchildren born up to 1834 were included originally although some others have been added). As I had considerable information on his other descendants I decided to try and to trace all of Andrew's descendants. I decided that this would be an interesting and worth while project and that the sooner it was started the easier it would be to compile.

However as I gathered more and more information it became evident that it would take a very long time. Hence I decided to include the family of John Gunter only as his family was the one on which I had the most information. Later I may compile similar records on the families of John's brothers and sisters.

I have used two main types of sources of information; primary and secondary.

The primary sources include:

- (1) The Records of Deeds and Probate Records Office in Gagetown.
- (2) The Crown Lands Office, Fredericton. The original grants and petitions for grants are kept here.
- (3) Legal papers. Original copies of deeds, receipts, etc.
- (4) Church Records. Parish records of Saint John's Anglican Church in Gagetown. Until about 1830 only Anglican clergy men could perform marriages. The early Baptist records are quite sketchy and give very few records of deaths and none of births and marriages.
- (5) Family Bible records and framed family charts.
- (6) Tombstone inscriptions

The secondary sources include: (1) E. Stone Wiggins's article (2) Various accounts by John Gunter (3) Dr. Greenwood's book "The Early Baptists of Cambridge Parish" (4) Leslie Gunter's accounts (5) Ester Wright's book "The Loyalists of New Brunswick" (6) Family histories on the Ontario Gunters and the Morrells. I wish to thank all those who answered my letters and thus provided the material found in the latter part of this booklet; especially: Mrs. Anasa Coy, Mrs. Herman Dykeman, Donald Gunter of Whites Cove, George Gunter of Minto, Mrs. Ansel Warman and many others

II E. Stone Wiggins's Article

The following article was one of a series on the Loyalists of Queens county by E. Stone Wiggins. It appeared in the "Watchman", a Saint John newspaper, on Dec. 9, 1876. Several copies are to be found in the Saint John Public Library.

Gunter, Conrad, a German, said a lieutenant in the British Navy, settled in Warwick in the United States in the year 1753. At the close of the Revolutionary War he moved to Saint John, and in the year 1785 settled on the Jemseg. He afterwards moved to the Washademoak, but becoming disheartened with the prospect in the new country, he returned to New York, leaving behind him his son and daughter - Andrew & Mary. The former, afterwards a captain in the militia, married Elizabeth, daughter of John Titus, and his descendants form the Gunter family in New Brunswick. His children were: Phoebe, who was born in 1790, who married Ezekiel Stone, maternal grand-father of the writer of this essay; John - Ann Currey; Abraham - Eunice Dykeman; Isaac - Maria Coy; Sarah - John Lounsbury; Jacob - Elizabeth Atherton; Francis - William Currey; Charles - Ann Jenkins; Andrew - Jane Morl. Phoebe, Isaac, Sarah, Jacob (Rev.), Charles and Andrew are still living. John became a member of the Baptist Church under the ministration of Rev. Elijah Estabrook in 1812. He was appointed a deacon of the Jemseg church in 1817, which office he creditably filled during the remainder of his life. He was for a lifetime a most exemplary and pious man, revered and respected by all who knew him. He died in 1876. Jacob is a minister of the Free Baptist Church, Fredericton, N.B. Dr. George Gunter of St. Martins is a son of Abraham. Charles is the only son of Andrew Gunter now living in Queens.

Notes:

1. Conrad Gunter recieved a grant of land in 1786. Conrad's grant contained 172 acres and was situated half way between Jemseg and Lower Jemseg (lot #10). Traveling along the highway from Jemseg to Lower Jemseg the road takes a sharp turn in order to get around Dykeman Lake. The strait section of road just around the turn forms part of the upper line of the property.

2. Conrad did not keep his grant for long, because on May 21st, 1787 he sold lot #10 (described as having 200 acres) to Garrett Dykeman (who had recieved the next lower grant) for the sum of twenty pounds ten shillings. Conrad was described as "living up the Washademoak". Andrew Gunter also recieved a grant in 1786. It contained 200 acres and was situated at McDonald corner on the Washademoak (lot #2). It is the second lot below the road from Lower Jemseg. Therefore, it is likely Conrad was living at Andrew's place when he sold his grant.

3. On April 16, 1792 Conrad sold a lot on Hog Island at the mouth of the Washademoak to William Peters. Conrad was again described as "living up the Washademoak".

On April 30, 1792 Conrad Gunter married Priscilla Anderson (from a copy of the Gagetown Anglican Church records).

4. Andrew Gunter married Elizabeth Titus on Dec. 26, 1789. Andrew Gunter and his wife are described as coheirs to the estate of the late John Titus. (See quit claim, Queens county record office, Gagetown, Book G, Page 231.)

The following notes were made during a visit of my father, Fred Gunter of Fredericton, and his sister, Mrs. Nora Anderson of Andover, to the late John Gunter of Mill Cove, Queens county about the year 1938.

Connet Gunter came from Germay to Liverpool, Eng. He lived there about one year, came to New York, then he came from NewYork to Saint John in 1783 on a boat called the "Mayflower".

Conrad Gunter's wife was Mary Brown born in Holland called Low Dutch. Conrad was born in Prussia or Hanover (High Dutch). He had a deed of Hog Island in the mouth of the Washademoak.

Conrad lived at Jemseg died² and is burried in Lower Jemseg in cemetery near the shore. He had a grant of the Harold Huestis farm, two miles below Jemseg corner.

Children:

Andrew Gunter his son born in New York

Abraham Gunter married Nancy Clark, went to Ontario in 1812.

Isaac, a sea captain who stayed in New York.

27 ships in a fleet came to Saint John from New York in 1783 with United Empire Loyalists. One ship was lost on Grand Manan rocks with nearly 100 persons.⁶

Our great-grandfather, Andrew Gunter, lived on the Jemseg flat oppsite the head of Thatch Island just above the barn with a staging on the roof just above the line. His highland place is now the George Coy place.⁷ Part of the old house is the woodhouse. Herb Gunter's (now Cooper) place is the old John Lounsbury (uncle Will's father) place.⁸ Jacob Gunter place was the Caleb Huestis place.

We are German Dutch descent landed.

Abraham Gunter⁹ married Nancy Clark and moved to Ontario (Murry T.P., Northumberland county). They had two children when they left and three more in Ontario. Their names were Abraham, Samuel, William, Henry, and Catherine. There are four Gunter settlements: Coc Hill, Stoney Settlement and Cashel or Gunter for the first postmaster was a Gunter.

The following is a copy of a family chart. It is a record of the family of John Gunter, the eldest son of Andrew Gunter.

John Gunter, born Mar. 17, 1793, married Nancy Curry, born Aug. 7, 1796, on Jan. 11, 1817 at Canning by Rev. Samuel Clark

Children:

Mary E., born Sept. 17, 1818 married George McLean at Cambridge

Richard W., born July 11, 1820 married Rebecca Springer

Tamar A., born July 6, 1823 died Jan. 1, 1826

Frances A., born Mar. 8, 1827

Andrew M., born Apr. 7, 1831

William H., born July 9, 1833

Pheobe I., born June 17, 1837 died Nov. 11, 1862

Rebecca Tamar, born June 17, 1837 married Caleb Huestis

David Isaac, born June 18, 1841

1. "Dutch" probably does not refer to Holland but the word "Deutsch" which is the German word for German. Low German is a term applied to the people of northern Germany, while High German refers to southern Germans.

2. Insert the word "there".

3. It appears that Mary and "a sister who married a Morrell" were one and the same person. In 1939 Mrs. Ethel Chubbuck of Berkeley, California compiled a history of Thomas Morrell and some of his descendants. It contains a reproduction of a family chart showing the names and dates of birth of Elnathan Morrell (one of Thomas's sons) his wife and their fifteen children. This chart shows the maiden name of Elnathan's wife as Mary Gunter. It also shows that she was born on Mar. 20, 1781 and died on July 7, 1849. It is possible that the chart was drawn up after the death of Mary, hence her maiden name could have been misspelled. The chart shows that their oldest child, Elnathan Foster Morrell was born on Nov. 3, 1799.

The Gagetown Anglican Church Records show that on Feb. 14, 1799 Elnathan Morrell married Mary Gunter and that on May 11, 1800 Elnathan Foster, son of Elnathan and Mary Morrell was baptised. All this makes it seem likely that the Mary Gunter shown on the chart was actually Mary Gunter, daughter of Conrad Gunter.

Mrs. Chubbuck's history gives the names of 338 descendants of Elnathan and Mary Morrell, including 90 grandchildren and 101 great-grandchildren. Their eleventh child was Harriet Jane Morrell who married Andrew Gunter, my great-grandfather.

4. The following is a copy of a petition on file at the New Brunswick Crown Land Office in Fredericton.

"To Thomas Carleton Esq Captain General and governor in Chief in and over the Province of New Brunswick Ve Ve Ve

"The petition of Elizabeth Gunter humbly sheweth.

"That she came to this country about two years past as she understood her father was in the Engineers Department and had come to this province

"Do humbly beg then your excellency will order her some land and she will use her Endeavour to get it settle and as in duty bound will pray City of St. John 1st of October 1785

"signed Elethabeath gunter"

The fact that Elizabeth could not locate her father indicates how poor communications were at the time.

5. (See note 3.)

6. In the fall of 1783 the "Martha" was wrecked on a ledge of rocks off Cape Sable, Nova Scotia. 115 lives were lost. (From "The Loyalists of New Brunswick" by Ester Clark Wright.)

7. Andrew Gunter owned considerable land in Queens county.

The following is a rough list of his land transactions, in Queens county. It may be incomplete especially with respect to lands sold.

1786 granted lot #2 MacDonald Corner	interval (below Sheffield)
1795 bought lot # 12 Musquash Island	1804 bought lot #12, Canning interval
1796 bought two lots at Jemseg (his address given as Hampstead)	1805 leased a lot at Upper Gagetown
	1814 bought this same lot
1797 sold lot # 2 at MacDonald Corner	1807 bought lot #20, Canning interval
1797 bought lot #22 on Washademoak Lake	1818 bought lot #35, Upper Jemseg
	1832 bought lot #2, Upper Gagetown
1798 bought lot #13 on Canning	bought lot #21, Canning interval
	(no date known)

8. John Lounsbury leased this property in 1804 and left it to his sons John D. and William B. Lounsbury. John D. Lounsbury and his wife Sarah (a sister of John Gunter) sold it to Charles Gunter (a brother to John Gunter and Sarah Lounsbury) in 1846. Because my father, his brothers and sisters referred to first cousins of their father as uncle and aunt "Uncle Will" could refer to John D. Lounsbury's son William.

9. Abraham Gunter married Ann Clark on July 2, 1800. (Gagetown Anglican Church Records)

Abraham had many descendants of which many still live in Eastern Ontario. They hold a reunion each year on the third Sunday in July at Marmora, Ontario. I have a photocopy of a family history showing the descendants of Abraham Gunter. It is a rough outline and names 682 of Abraham's descendants. These notes were made by Mrs. Laura Crosby of Coe Hill, Ontario in the late 1950's.

In 1809 Abraham Gunter sold two lots of land on the southeast-side of Washademoak Lake to Thomas Lewis.

Another Account by John Gunter

The following notes were made by the late Mrs. James McIntyre on a visit to John Gunter of Mill Cove, October of 1943. Mrs. McIntyre's maiden name was Sarah Gunter. She was the daughter of John L. Gunter the Belleisle.

Conrad Gunter received a grant of Hog Island which is situated just below Palmer's Wharf.¹ Conrad married Mary Brown is buried at the Nevers cemetery, Jemseg. Date of death unknown supposed to be about 1810 or 1812. Hog Island property deed dated 1792.

Andrew lived and died at Gagetown married Elizabeth Titus.

Abraham married Nancy Clark moved to Ontario

Isaac, Unmarried, never came to this country is buried at New York.

There were two daughters who never came to this country to live one came on a visit after she was married.

One daughter married Jacob Morrell²

Andrew's family - Elizabeth Titus

Andrew-married Jane Morrell

Isaac-lived above Bear

Island married Sarah McCoy

John married Nancy Currie

Jacob-Eliza Atherton

Abraham-Eunice Dykeman.

Charles-Amy Jenkins

Phoebe-Ezekiel Stone

Sarah-John Lounsbury lived at Bear Island

Francis-Wm Currie lived at Oromocto

1. Hog Island (better known as Belle Isle) is located three-quarters of a mile below Palmer's Warf and is in the mouth of the Belleisle Bay. It is unlikely that this is the island referred to in Conrad's deed because it is located in Kings county and the deed is registered in Queens county.

2. Perhaps Elnathan Morrell was confused with his youngest child Jacob Valentine Morrell who died at Saint John in 1914 at the age of 88.

John's children

Mary-George McLean lived and died at Jemseg
 Richard-Deborah Springer
 Tamar-never married died when about 3 years old
 Fannie-Francis-never married lived at Jemseg died at 90 years.
 Andrew-Catherine Ferris
 William-Charity Colwell
 Twins { Phoebe-not married died of diphtheria 23 years
 { Tamar-Caleb Heustis
 Isaac-Ellen Mary Balmain

The account goes on to give incomplete information on the families of Jacob, Andrew and Isaac Gunter, all brothers of John. Some of the information given on these families is incorrect.

Account Given in Dr. Greenwood's Book

In 1939 and 1940 Rev. Walter R. Greenwood, M.A., Th.D. who was at the time pastor of the Jemseg Baptist Church wrote a booklet entitled, "The Early Baptists of Cambridge Parish, Queens County, New Brunswick". He based his booklet on the records of the various Baptist Churches in the area. Besides giving church histories he attempts to give place of residence and some family history on each person in the membership rolls. The appendix contains excerpts from Parish Records of St. John's Anglican Church at Gagetown and genealogies of some of the families. In his forward Dr. Greenwood thanked all those who gave him information especially the late Inglewood Flower of MacDonald's Corner and John Gunter of Mill Cove.

The following account of the Gunter family appears on page 8 of Dr. Greenwood's book.

"We come next to the homestead of John Gunter.¹ He was a son of Andrew Gunter who, together with his brother Abraham Gunter and their father Conrad Gunter came with the Loyalists from New York. Conrad Gunter was a Lieutenant in the British army.² He had settled at Warwick, N.Y. in 1753. Andrew was a Captain in the local Militia. The father, Conrad, was granted land now owned by Mr. George Mason. Andrew and his son John³ had been granted land at McDonald's Corner but shortly they removed to Upper Gagetown near Chase's Wharf. Abraham removed to Ontario in 1812, so that all the Gunter's in New Brunswick are descendants of Andrew. Andrew had married Elizabeth Titus a sister of Jonathan Titus. His son, John, married Ann Curry of Upper Gagetown. Shortly afterwards, in 1817, John and Ann settled on the Jemseg. It may have been that he was strongly influenced in this decision by the fact that close by lived his Aunt Deborah and Uncle Jonathan Titus and also that next door lived his Aunt Phoebe and Uncle Moses Dykeman."

The following are other excerpts from Dr. Greenwood's book.

"The Gunters were from Hanover, Germany;" - page 10

"On October 17, 1824 nine people were baptized on John Gunter's shore. These were the first people, so far as is known, to be baptized in the Grand Lake. It is probable that it is from this baptism that the Jemseg Church derives its beginning as a distinct church group." - page 11

"JOHN GUNTER. Here we have an important name for he was the first deacon of the Church, a lay preacher, and a leader in all the Church's activities as long as he lived. It will be observed that his wife, Ann, had been baptized in 1812. No doubt she influenced all her immediate relatives on the Jemseg. Baptist influence among the Dykemans and Gunters had its origin, probably, with the Curry family of Upper Gagetown." - page 11

"When our Church records do begin in 1854 John Gunter and Joseph Hatfield Dykeman are listed as Deacons but when appointed is not known. A strong tradition is to the effect that John Gunter was made deacon at the very beginning of the church's life, probably at this time in 1826." - page 14

"Fanny Gunter, a daughter of Deacon John Gunter. She never married and lived on the old Gunter homestead until a ripe old age.

"Caleb Heustis bought the old Gidney property and brought up his family there. His wife was Tamar Gunter, a sister⁴ of Deacon John Gunter of Upper Jemseg." - page 32

The following is a genealogy which appears in the appendix of Dr. Greenwood's book, pages 74-75.

Gunter

CONRAD GUNTER married ? BROWN. Their children were:

Abraham who married Nancy Clark and who settled in Ontario in

Mary who married Elnathan Morrel 1812

Andrew who married Elizabeth Titus a daughter of John Titus and who lived at Upper Gagetown. (See note at bottom of page.)

The children of ANDREW and ELIZABETH were:

John who married Ann Curry daughter of Richard Curry.

Abraham who married Eunice Dykeman and who settled on the Bellisle

Isaac who married Sally Coy and who moved to Bear Island, N.B.

Jacob who married Elizabeth Alvertton and who became a Freewill Baptist minister.

Andrew who moved to Bear Island, N.B.

Charles who stayed on the homestead at Upper Gagetown.

Sarah who married John Lounsbury of Upper Gagetown

Phoebe who married Ezekiel Stone and lived in Scotchtown.

Fanny who married William Curry a brother of John's wife, Ann.

The children of JOHN and ANN Gunter settled on the Jemseg in 1817

Richard who married Deborah Springer, daughter of James Springer, the Loyalists. They lived on the upper part of what is now Leslie Gunter's farm.

Andrew who married Catherine Ferris and who lived in White's Cove where Mr. Cody now lives.

William who married Charity Colwell and who lived where Percy McLean now lives.

Isaac who married Ellen Bulmaine and who lived on the old homestead.

Tamar who died at the age of four.

Mary who married George McLean and who live on the Jemseg.

Fanny who never married.

Tamar (a second Tamar) who marries Caleb Heustis.

Phoebe who died of diphtheria: never married, age 23.

Note: Dr. Greenwood gives the maiden name of John Titus's wife as Elizabeth Beadle. E. Stone Wiggins gave it as Elizabeth Dorland.

1. This homestead was lot #35 which was bought by Andrew Gunter in 1818. Andrew left this lot to John in his will. It appears Andrew never lived on this property but bought it for his son's use.

2. The following appears in the New York Historical Society Collections, 1916, page 152 and page 155. (A copy of which is to be found in the University of New Brunswick Library.)

"Minute Book of a board of General Officers of the British Army in New York 1781

"New York 26th Aug. 1781

"Muster roll of Artificers, Sawyers, etc. employed at the under-mentioned places under the direction and orders of Captain Alexander Mercer, Commanding Engineer.

Where Employed	Station	Names
Hons Hook	Carpenter	Conrad Gunter
Heights of Brooklyn, Long Island	Carpenter	Andrew Gunter

Ester Clark Wright's Book "The Loyalists of New Brunswick" also lists both Conrad and Andrew Gunter as being in the Engineering Department of the British Army during the American Revolution.

3. This John Gunter was not Andrew's son. John Gunter was granted lot #1 at MacDonald Corner. This lot adjoined Andrew's lot but I do not know if he was related to Andrew. Andrew's son John was not born until 1793. When John Gunter sold his grant in 1815 he was living in New York City.

There were other Gunters in New Brunswick prior to 1810 who do not appear to be related to Conrad. These are Dr. Charles Gunther of Fredericton (who was born in Prussia), Ebenezer Gunter (who became a freeman of Saint John in 1806) and Sophia Gunter (who married Asa Blakley in 1809 at Waterborough). I have a bit more information on the above but will not give it here.

4. This, of course, is a mistake. Tamar was John's daughter not his sister. Caleb and Tamar lived in Lower Jemseg.

Leslie Gunter's Account

These are a few brief notes I took on a visit to Leslie Gunter in December of 1965.

"Many people were gathered to Liverpool, England to await passage to America." I did not copy the preceeding down at the time but got it from memory three years latter.

"Conrad worked on the docks in Liverpool for three months awaiting passage. He built bulkheads for ships. There was much exploitation of these people. Conrad married Palloy Braun (as Leslie spelled it to us) in Germany. Most of the children were born in Germany.

"Conrad's son, Isaac, stayed in the United States, was a sea captain, died childless in Brooklyn, his property went to the state. Two daughters stayed in the United States.

Leslie Gunter also said that John Beagle Gunter (a brother to my grandfather, Charles) owned a sword which had belonged to Andrew Gunter.

Leslie's description of Conrad's immigration to America seems to fit the great migration of Germans via England in 1708 - 1710. Many of these people settled in and around Newburg, New York which is 25 miles from Warwick. Most of the later German immigrants sailed directly from Germany or Holland to Pennsylvania. (There is a village in Clearfield county, Pennsylvania called Ginter) Thus it is possible that Conrad was not the immigrant but his father or grandfather was.

A Couple of Family Traditions

My grandfather, Charles Gunter, used to tell that a Phoebe Gunter, a sister of Conrad or Andrew, paid a surprise visit from Germany or New York. When I was small my father, Fred Gunter, told me that the Gunters lived in New Amsterdam before it was captured by the English and the name changed to New York. (A Thomas Morrill or Morrell lived at Gravesend, now part of Brooklyn, New York in 1650. He was possibly the ancestor of Thomas Morrell, the Loyalists-see note #3, page 4.)

Description of the Old Family Chart

The following information on Andrew's family is from a large family chart drawn up in Gagetown in February of 1834. Charles and Andrew were as yet unmarried at that time. Following the name of each of Andrew's children I have indicated the number of children I believe each had. It is possible some of them had more children. This chart is now in the possession of my father, Fred Gunter of Fredericton.

Andrew Gunter; born Oct. 12, 1766; married on Dec. 26, 1789;
Elizabeth Titus; born Mar. 20, 1772
Children:

- (1) Phoebe; born Dec. 4, 1790; married E. Stone-6 children
- (2) John; born Mar. 17, 1793; married A. Currie-9 children
- (3) Abraham; born Aug. 26, 1795; married E. Dykeman-8 children
- (4) Isaac; born Aug. 4, 1798; married M. Coy-9 children
- (5) Mary; born Feb. 5, 1801; died Nov. 29, 1809
- (6) Sarah; born Feb. 5, 1804; married J. Lounsbury-10 children
- (7) Jacob; born Oct. 17, 1806; married E. Atherton-7 children
- (8) Frances; born May 20, 1809; married W. Currie-7 children
- (9) Charles; born Dec. 21, 1812; (married Amy Jenkins)-6 children
- (10) Andrew; born Apr. 20, 1816; (married Harriet Jane Morrell)-
11 children

Thus Andrew and Elizabeth had at least 73 grandchildren.

The Gunter Family Graveyard, Upper Gagetown

Andrew and Elizabeth Gunter are both buried in the Gunter family graveyard at Upper Gagetown. It is located back of the river road just below the road into Camp Medley. This graveyard contains about thirty stones dated 1837 to 1960. Almost all of the people burried in this graveyard are descendants of Andrew or were married to them. The grounds and most of the stones are in good shape and repair. Andrew Gunter died Sept. 22, 1837, aged 71 years and his wife, Elizabeth died Dec. 15, 1844 aged 72 years.

An Unfiled Deed

The following is an abstract of a deed found among the legal papers of Andrew Gunter, son of Conrad Gunter. It was not filed in the Queens county record office and was not signed by Conrad Gunter. It was signed by John Peekett.

John Peekett and Charity his wife for 8 dollars to Coonrod Gunter both of Wicham parish (Queens county); a lot of land on the north west side of the Washademoak lake-lot #25 - dated Sept. 22, 1791.

A Brief Account of the Ancestory of Nancy Currey, wife of John Gunter

Nancy or Ann Currey, wife of John Gunter, was a daughter of Richard Currey and his wife, Rebecca or Phoebe Dykeman. (Phoebe or Rebecca Dykeman was the daughter of Garret Dykeman and his wife, Eunice (Hatfield?).) Richard Currey was the son of Joshua Currey (1741-1802), a Loyalists, and his wife, Eunice Travis. Joshua Currey in turn was the son of Richard Currey (1709-1806) and his wife, Elizabeth Jones. This Richard Currey was the son of Richard Currey (born 1679-80; died 1722) and his wife who was the daughter of Robert and Catherine Stivers (her first name is unknown). Thus Robert Stivers (who lived in Eastchester, New York) was Nancy Gunter's great-great-great-grandfather.

Philip Field Horne of 3 Greenwood Lane, Valhalla, New York is preparing a genealogy to include as many of the descendants of Richard Currey (1679-80 - 1722) as possible. I have given him all the information which I have. In May of 1968, he hoped to have it published in July of 1969.

How to use the Next Part of the Booklet

I have given John Gunter's descendants one generation at a time. Under each name of the members of one generation I have given their children (who make up the next generation). Thus a lot of names appear twice. In front of each such name I have placed a number. The same number appears in both places the name appears. Thus by takeing a number in front of a name and looking it up in another generation it is possible to find either the names of the person's parents, brothers and sisters or their husband or wife and children, if any.

For each generation after the fourth generation I have included the dates and places of death after the names of the children of that generation.

After each name I have indicated in brackets each persons descent from John Gunter. In the case of female lines I have given the maiden name of the female ancestors.

I have used only a few abbreviations: b. for born; d. for died; N.B. for New Brunswick; N.S. for Nova Scotia; Ont. for Ontario; B.C. for British Columbia; Sask. for Saskatchewan; Mass. for Massachusetts.
